

REMARKS

The Examiner's attention to the present application is noted with appreciation. Applicant gratefully acknowledges the allowance of claims 8-10, 18-20, and 29-34. However, applicant submits that all claims in the present invention are allowable, per the following remarks.

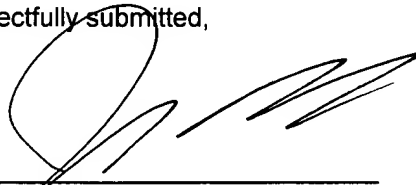

The Examiner rejected claims 1 and 11-12 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Young et al. The rejection is respectfully traversed. Per the Examiner's kind suggestion, submitted herewith is a declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 showing that the inventor of this application invented and conceived the invention disclosed but not claimed in Young et al.; thus the invention is not "by another".

The Examiner rejected claims 1-3, 6, 11-13, 16, 21-22, and 25-26 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,322,368. The Examiner also rejected claims 2-4, 13-14, 23-24, and 27-28 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,322,368 in view of Bayer et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,311,190. The Examiner also rejected claims 5 and 15 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,322,368 in view of Bayer et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,311,190. Such rejections are respectfully traversed. Filed herewith is a terminal disclaimer which disclaims the terminal portion of the present patent application in favor of commonly owned U.S. Patent No. 6,322,368.

The application is now in condition for allowance, and such is respectfully requested by the statutory deadline of June 14, 2005. If any issues remain the Examiner is cordially invited to telephone the undersigned attorney for Applicant at the telephone number listed below.

Being filed herewith is a Petition for Extension of Time to March 14, 2005 with the appropriate fee.
Authorization is given to charge payment of any additional fees required, or credit any overpayment, to Deposit Acct. 13-4213. A duplicate of the Petition paper is enclosed for accounting purposes.

Respectfully submitted,
